

SJSU PEER CONNECTIONS

Peer Connections offers tutoring and mentoring services to the SJSU community.

Go out with friends for a day trip, go out for movies or bowling, start a new hobby, join a dance class. Understand that people can change for the better. What game or movie universe would you most like to live in? Peer Mentors know how to refer students to appropriate campus resources in order to navigate more easily through the university system. What's your claim to fame? Ever feel like Spongebob when he tried to write his essay on Traffic Lights? You can make appointments online , by phone at , or in-person at our main location SSC It is a lot less intimidating to ask a question one-on-one than to ask in class as well. Moving away from home and trying to adapt to a new comfort zone, with a big campus, with different faces can be overwhelming for branching off on your own. College is not easy and we definitely need to spend a lot of time studying and learning, but at the same time we should give ourselves some free time as well. You will learn to do those things for yourself! If you are unable to attend a particular workshop but would like more information on the workshop's content, please contact a Peer Mentor and let them know of your interest. Snuck out of the house, took my brother's car, picked up my friend and drove all the way from San Jose to San Francisco and back through Oakland all way past midnight. Tutors will not do your work for you. I would definitely try getting into a martial arts academy to learn various techniques on how to defend myself. By developing peer leaders, supporting students, collaborating with faculty and staff on peer learning projects, and conducting undergraduate research, we will devise innovative approaches to peer education. Classic tutors offer appointments and drop-in tutoring for a wide variety of subjects as well as undergraduate and graduate student writing. Our student success workshops do not require advanced sign-ups and are first-come, first-serve. We are always looking for more workshop topics. I want to go somewhere relaxing like a beach club to relax my mind and soul with close friends. Don't forget to go to office hours and make connections, it'll help you out a lot in the long run. Tuesday, September 17th, pm SSC New Home, New Me In this workshop, we will be discussing moving away from home, and being in a new environment surrounded by new peers. I love getting to cross off the things that I write down. Filling out a planner with everything you have going on and mastering time management are two important keys that have been helping me stay on top of everything I have going on in and out of school. Have a daily routine and make a to-do list. You'll find that you complete more tasks this way and you're not as stressed. Move forward one step at a time and get involved as much as you can with all the activities and clubs on campus.
